

Hilary K. Murphy

Hilary K. Murphy is an Assistant Vice President and has been with Obsidian since September 2003. Ms. Murphy has performed valuation analyses and managed asset sales and company liquidations both domestically and abroad. She has managed litigation and settlement strategies in the United States, Asia-Pacific region and Europe. Ms. Murphy is also responsible for environmental diligence on various Obsidian projects in coordination with counsel, consultants and business partners.

Prior to joining Obsidian, Ms. Murphy was a contract attorney at Miller Nash LLP and assisted in the liquidation of distressed home equity loan portfolios. She graduated from the University of Oregon School of Law in 2002, with an emphasis in environmental and natural resources law. She is currently an active member of the Oregon State Bar. In addition to her J.D., Ms. Murphy holds a B.S. in environmental studies, also from the University of Oregon.

Office: 503-542-8864